“Having taken countless roses from my mother’s rose bushes in my seemingly never-ending teenage pursuit of love, it seems only fitting to honor her memory for posterity with a gift of her favorite flower, the rose,” stated Corporation CEO and President Steven C. Hawkins. “May this beautiful space bring joy and happiness to many future generations to come.”

In addition to this special dedication, Hawkins also announced plans for the future of the Historic Greer Depot, represented in this fantastic watercolor vignette by artist Cliff Minor of Boone, NC...
